

CITY of CHICAGO
NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING

The City of Chicago will host a public hearing on its Phase II draft application response to the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development's National Disaster Resilience Competition:

Tuesday, October 20, 2015
Garfield Park Conservatory
Community Room
300 N. Central Park
Chicago IL 60634

Registration will begin at 4:30 p.m. The public hearing will begin at 5:00 p.m.

*Facility is accessible to the mobility impaired
Interpreters for the hearing impaired and Spanish speaking will be provided.*

The competition will support innovative resilience projects at the local level while encouraging communities to adopt policy changes and activities that plan for the impacts of extreme weather and climate change and rebuild affected areas to be better prepared for the future. If Chicago's application is selected, CDBG-NDR Funds may be available to assist in long-term disaster recovery and to address unmet housing, business and infrastructure needs resulting from the severe April 2013 rainstorms in Chicago. The public is invited to attend and provide input on the draft application.

The City of Chicago's draft Phase II application is available for review at www.cityofchicago.org/resilience. If you are unable to attend the hearing, please send written comments to the Office of the Mayor, City Hall, Room 406, 121 N. LaSalle Street, Chicago, Illinois 60602, or email to sustainability@cityofchicago.org. Written comments will be accepted through October 24, 2015.
